

Benefits of Membership

Affiliation with the Texas Transit Association provides members a voice in the state legislative process and numerous professional development and networking opportunities.

Members also can take advantage of reduced rates on Association events, training, receive complimentary subscriptions to the Association's Newsletter and appear in the membership directory.

Whether you are a transit system seeking stronger representation with Texas lawmakers, a transit vendor, or trade group looking to enhance your visibility within the public transportation sector, membership connects your organization to the heart of Texas's transit industry.

Additional benefits include:

Awards and Recognition

Involvement in one of the many Association Committees

The opportunity to post available positions at no cost on TTA's Website Job Board.

Notifications of RFP's that are posted on the website.

Members may place articles in TTA's newsletter to promote member agencies or accomplishments. Members may also place ads in the newsletter at a substantially reduced rate which can be a powerful way to reach decision makers at agencies across the state.

Recognition in the online membership directory.

Networking opportunities; There is no better way to meet the CEO's, General Managers, Directors, and key employees of Texas's public transit systems than through your membership with TTA.

The opportunity to list significant events on the TTA website Events Tab at no cost.

State Conference; TTA conducts one of the premier state annual conferences and EXPO's each year, where indoor exhibits and vehicle displays are featured. Member firms receive significantly discounted exhibitor and individual conference registration fees.

Annual State Bus and Maintenance Roadeo; opportunities for networking with TTA Members

All Member Meetings and evening receptions (July and January); This is a free event that is open to all TTA members. (sponsorships available)

Board Meeting Sponsorships; This VIP level benefit is limited to a few times a year and will allow you unrestricted access to network with TTA's corporate members in an intimate setting. (ask for details)

Communication; Each new member is listed in the newsletter and showcased at a Board of Directors Meeting.
